1. Changing password at OBERMEYER network:

To change your password press „Strg + Alt + Del” and then „Change password”

Enter your current password and your new password. Confirm the new password.

If you enter a password that don’t matches the password requirements, the following error message appears:
2. Change password with VPN Client

Open VPN Connector
Start → All Programms → Barracuda Network Access Client → VPN Connector

Establish a VPN Connection
After the connection established successfully, the password can be changed as described in step 1. The change is NOW active.

To change your password press „Strg + Alt + Del“ and then „Change password“
Enter your current password and your new password. Confirm the new password.

If you enter a password that doesn’t match the password requirements, the following error message appears:
3. Change password with OWA (Webmail)

For changing your password open the webpage https://webmail.opb.de/ and login with your known credentials (provide that your passwords isn’t already expired).

At the right upper corner press Options → Change Password
At the next page enter your current password and choose a new password. Confirm your new password.

!Change Password

The password is now changed. Please close all opened webmail windows and reopen it.

!Microsoft Outlook Web App