

CENTRAL SPARE PARTS WAREHOUSE, SACHSENHEIM

New Central Spare Parts Warehouse, Sachsenheim, Germany

Project period
2007 - 2011

Construction cost
60 M € approx.

Services provided

Project planning and supervision, technical building equipment, building physics, energy engineering advice, traffic planning, planning of outdoor installations

Technical details

New logistics centre consisting of slow turnover goods stores, open-air storage facility and maintenance yard (construction section 1), fast turnover goods stores with storage and commissioning areas, gate building (section 2) as well as areas for administration, social facilities & technology. Gross floor area: 112 000 m²

