

WATER SUPPLY LANDSTUHL

Reorganization of the Water Supply in Part of Landstuhl Sickingenstadt, Germany

Services provided

Concept through to planning, tendering through to documentation, construction management, site supervision for engineering structures and technical equipment

Technical details

Renovation of the water network: 4 400 m of pipes up to DN 250, 20 house connections; new construction of Hörnchen elevated reservoir in the shape of an eye-glass (1 400 m³); new construction of a station for dosage of fluorine and chlorine according to US standards, throughput capacity up to 400 m³/h

