

SLUDGE DIGESTION / CHP STATION

Sludge Digestion and Combined Heat and Power Station, Sewage Treatment Plant Stuttgart-Möhringen, Germany

Services provided

Overall planning, preparation and participation of contract award proceedings, construction management and supervision, specialized supervision and documentation

Technical details

New construction of second septic tank, system integration, gas injection, combined heating and power station with 3 x 125 kW electrical energy capacity for the sewage treatment plant dimensioned for 160 000 population equivalents