

Flood Protection Dresden, Italian Village District, Germany

Services provided

Preliminary planning for flood protection measures

Technical details

Planning of mobile and stationary flood protection systems, as well as sub-soil sealing in the area of the classified historic town centre of Dresden, architectural and landscape-architectural consultancy, relocation of media, observation of all aspects of the protection of historic monuments