

LEININGER TAL WATERWORKS

New Construction of Leininger Tal Waterworks, Germany

Project period

2011 - 2019

Services provided

Conceptual, preliminary, design, approval and execution planning, preparation of and assistance in award of contract, construction management, supervision of works for engineering structures and technical equipment (instrumentation and control technology), structural engineering, coordination of health and safety protection

Technical details

New construction of a waterworks with conditioning capacity of 180 m³/h, initial deacidification by means of two CaCO₃ filters, physical deacidification, two clear water compartments with a capacity of 500 m³ each, pumping station and sedimentation basin