

Feasibility Study English Garden, Munich, Germany

Project period
2015

Services provided

- Examination of variants for:
 - Surface development, tunnel portal location taking account of safety requirements
 - Management of pedestrian/bicycle traffic on the surface
 - Preparation of tree/green balance
 - Noise protection deliberations

Cross section

Technical details

A feasibility study was prepared for the construction measure English Garden Tunnel in Munich. In an interactive planning process existing planning ideas and additional variant considerations as well as further analyses were discussed among the various technical disciplines involved.