

FLOOD PROTECTION IN THE INLAND PORT OF HAMBURG

Northern inland port bridge

Southern inland port bridge

Heightening of the Flood Protection Installations in the Inland Port of Hamburg, Germany

Project period
2006 - 2012

Services provided

Structural design/project planning of bridge structures, traffic, preliminary, design and approval planning, preparation of contract award

Technical details

Recalculations of the existing structure and planning of improvement measures at the northern and southern inland port bridges under consideration of the currently applicable loading cases in respect of flooding and the progressive sinking of the water level.