

CIXI BLOSSOMING RIVER OF TRANSITION, CHINA

Cixi Blossoming River of Transition, China

Project period
2003

Services provided

International competition for landscape architecture and urban development
1st prize Group in collaboration with Landscape Architects Prof. Rainer Schmidt

Technical details

Concept for the open spaces flanking both banks of the river, over a length of 8 km, with associated green belts and integration of green areas into the urban environment. Urban design for an area of 15 km² alongside the river, including traffic concept and bridge planning.